Assemblies this week

This week in assemblies we discussed our school value Aspiration. We discussed how we all aspire to be the best version of ourselves and this involves courage. We discussed the courage associated with St George, following St George's day. We then considered the different ways we show courage through the story, 'The Lion and the Unicorn.' by Shirley Hughes, which we will continue next week.

Respect and Tolerance

Open the Book

As many of you will be aware the school is visited by local volunteers representing St Erth Church and Chapel as part of the 'Open the Book' team. The team come in fortnightly for an assembly on a Wednesday, in which Bible stories are shared and discussed. This week they began to tell the Story of Joseph and his Multi-Coloured Coat, which will conclude next week. The assemblies encourage self-reflection and do not involve worship. We will share the fortnightly focus of these assemblies on the newsletter along with assemblies led by Mr Coleman going forward.

Change of Lunch Menu on Tuesday

Ria will be serving either
Sweet & Sour Chicken and Rice or Tomato Pasta
or Jacket Potato with Cheese or Beans

THE LONDON MARATHON

Well done Mrs Burton for completing the London Marathon last weekend! This is a fantastic achievement, as Mrs B had only ever run half the distance before but, despite an early injury, she made it to the finish line. Here she is at the finish line with her number 1 cheerleader, Saxon, and wearing her medal, which she brought into school to show the children.

Thank you to everyone who supported her fundraising.

Next week

Monday - Don't forget that there is a Bank Holiday on Monday

Tuesday - Don't forget that next Tuesday, 2 May, due to planned industrial action, the only class that will be open will be Godrevy class

Coronation Celebrations

Children were given details of the various village events taking place next weekend to mark the coronation of King Charles III. We also sent home details about the School's special lunch/Garden party on Friday, 5 May. If you haven't yet returned your reply slip please send in on Monday. Thank you for all the offers to send in cakes. Please send these with your child on the day.
