

Originally from St Ives, I moved to St Erth village in 2013 where my youngest 2 children love attending St Erth School.

I feel privileged to have worked in education for over 25 years, originally as a Teaching Assistant, and later as an Early Years Teacher and Special Educational Needs Coordinator. I now enjoy working as a lecturer and assessor in Childcare and Education.

Outside of work, I love spending time outdoors and making memories with my family.